Land of Joy and sex

1. For years I lived in this land where I was born. I lived with a fat, short woman who was getting older and more beautiful every year. As I remember she was always with different guys who came and went to our place, sometimes they went to Mom's room and after a while they would leave but sometimes they started to have sex on the couch beside my chair in the salon. I loved the house and how she behaved to me, I had every possibility to do whatever I liked.

I had a special small wooden chair in the salon. I would never sit anywhere else, it was exactly in front of the magic box, so I spent most time watching that magic box. There were some people living there who were coming and going so I liked to see their lives, usually they had a different life than ours. During that time there was a guy who, whenever he came to the salon would sit beside this magic box somehow in front of me then he would talk with Mom although I don't remember what they were talking about those days but I clearly remember his dick in his tight trouser when he sat in such a way that he put one of his feet with blended knee on the chair and the other one widely on the floor. Nevertheless I remember his dick was always so outstanding and the inseam would take it to two parts so that saw his balls being exposed. Once when I was watching the magic box, I felt something touch my right ear, first I thought it was a fly so I tried to get rid of that and I brought my hand toward my ear then I touched a big thing and heard "ah", so looked at the right, I saw a big erected dick close to my face but before I screamed he took my mouth with his big rough hand tightly and I couldn't breathe. I looked at his face, he was that ugly guy who was sitting in front of me in the salon, he said: "Be a good girl".

And as my mouth was shut I couldn't say anything.

2. The strangest people in the box were a girl in my age that was living with a guy who she called 'Dad'. They were living together and Dad was caring about her and loving her but they didn't have a sexual relation. The weirdest part at that period for me was why they didn't make love together! Dad was like a very handsome and kind and sexy man to me whom I fell in love with at the first look, I even could imagine his long erected cock under his dark blue trousers so I felt that girl must not have a cunt or she is just a doll who can speak and eat and walk, she was sick and she cried every day.

One day when I was going out to see a guy I saw 'Mom', she was passing the door, nonetheless suddenly I stopped and I asked:

"Mom, why do those people live there in such a small box in our own place and why she doesn't make love with Dad? Strange, huh?"

She looked at my eyes and said nothing then I went out.

On the way out I saw a guy who was licking a girl's pussy and she shriek like a pussy cat I went closer she was 'Mine', my childhood friend, with her long orange hair she lied on the ground with released legs and a skinny body. I put my face close to her face and I gave her a kiss on her dry lips. Then I gazed at her little pink nipples and I went toward them first I licked one of them with the top of my tongue to make them a little wet but her body was moving like a swimming mermaid in an ocean, her body had a short contact with my body whenever she had a slow screaming of delight. Her sexy voice could make me crazy at once then I bit her tits strongly, she shrieked louder I was biting harder and harder, at the same time Dad came to me and without saying a word he began to fuck me from the rear. He took my long black hair in his hand and pulled my head back so I gave up Mine's nipples from my tooth but still I had the smell of very tasty blood of her nipples in my mouth, he fucked me like a horse while I was playing with my cunt on top of the face of Mine. He first came half in my pussy and half on her face I had my orgasm a few seconds later as I felt his hot juices inside and I shouted and came with a little bit of piss on her closed blue eyes.

I almost have sex every day with everyone who I see at first but I just get orgasms whenever Dad comes to me. He usually comes to me few minutes before my final delight and without any speeches he does the best things with me which no one could do till now.

3. I had lied beside the cat on my bed. Nevertheless some annoying noises didn't allow me to fall asleep although the cat would sleep in every situation; I tried to focus on voices. After a while it sounded like someone was begging not to be eaten. The sounds were too close; it was from Mom's room. So I was very curious and went to her room. The door was closed therefor I stuck my left ear to the door, after years I found out that I could not hear with my right ear well, and that was because of that ugly guy who was staring at me while I was watching the magic box.

There was a man, first I thought that he is just a guy again with Mom in her room as usual, as I lived in this place there were always many guys who were coming and going, she didn't usually go out to find a man, as she is so beautiful and sexy, I mean she knows all the rules to make a guy horny as much as possible, and there are always many men who wish to sleep with her. I always wish I was her. Anyhow at this moment I was very inquisitive because as I listened more carefully the sound was familiar to me. Then I tried to look inside from the narrow hole on the door which was for the key lock nonetheless the key was at the other side so I could see nothing. Then I tried to look under the door, the border between door and ground. I could see their feet. She was seated on her knees for a standing guy, I thought she was sucking his cock in that position. The point was that those voices weren't from a pleasure of getting sucked.

"Please, please don't eat me, don't eat" he was begging.

After a while the sounds got slower and I could hear it very hard. Now I felt that something strange was about to happen. I went back to my room again then I went behind the window this time from the shared balcony. I tried to stay hidden behind the wall at the right so that they couldn't see me. There was no curtain in front of the window as Mom never likes to cover it. Once I asked her about it then she just looked at me and said nothing, most times she doesn't answer my questions. Nevertheless I know that the reason is that she loves to be watched especially when she has sex in her room since she keeps her room so bright even at nights.

They were still there and I couldn't see the face of that man yet, it sounded like Mom still was sucking his dick. Suddenly the standing man fell on the ground all over his body was bloody. I was very afraid; I could see the side of his face.

"Oh no! My love!" I said and I went back out of fear.

I still tried to see what was happening there. I saw Dad's body on the ground like a corpse however this prostitute didn't want to stop, she put her nasty fat body on his corpse and bit him, and all over her face was bloody. I was scared and I felt all of my body frozen in a sudden. I wished I was blind at that moment so I couldn't see what was happening in that blue room. That bitch didn't want to stop; she ate all of his body such a hungry rabid dog.

After all these horrible things which I saw I was still shocked and couldn't believe all those were in real ,it was like a nightmare. I even didn't scream or cry.

When I opened my eyes I had lied in the cold ground of the balcony. The cat was asleep between my arm and the breast.

It asked: "why did you sleep here? Any how I know you went to Dad again when I was asleep ,any way I prefer to know nothing, you don't want to be with me even at nights?." It was talking continuously.

I got up and I went toward Mom's room directly .the door was half opened, she may went to drink some water after eating that much!! Nevertheless I still thought that I may have a nightmare. I entered and saw she had slept on the red carpet beside him. I think I was the only one who could recognize this corpse's face because she almost had eaten him completely.

At that day I left that gloomy place with the cat. I just left a paper beside her on Dad's face which it wasn't like a face any more it was some dried blood on his cheek bones and his bright teeth which still were shining and it reminds me his smile after his orgasm when he had sex with me. That was the only moment that I could see his smile. The dark eyes of my love weren't on his face any more.

I put that paper on holes of his eyes which I had written on it "you ate my man, Mom ".

4. Walking on the way where as far as I could see there were just sands and the sun at the end on the blue sky. Without any speech we were going on our way. I was still naked however the weather was as hot as that I was feeling the flames came up of my skin like I was burning in a fire. I was still thinking about that night, I sat beside rest of Dad's corpse. I touched some of his bloody parts of his body then I licked all over my fingers just like when you lick it after eating an ice-cream in a very hot weather and you want to have its taste on your mouth forever. Dad's blood was a little bit dried and very bitter. I started to play with my pussy with the other hand. I put it on his blood and then rubbed it to my pussy. I did it for a while till I got orgasm and such a good feeling I wasn't suffered any more by looking at his body. When I was leaving the room I gave a kiss on asleep Mom's lips. I knew that I wouldn't forget her and she would be my hero forever. A hero who dared to kill my love.

The cat started to twist between my feet so it stopped me of thinking suddenly. I looked down at it. It was like a coquette. I didn't care nevertheless I felt exhausted of all those thoughts. Then I sat just over there on the sands which was like seating on hot burning coals.

Land of Dream and Sex

1. At the end of the day we found an abandoned wooden house which was in a very strange land of nowhere. Finally we found a shelter. It was totally dark but seemed clean and furnished. I didn't try to discover all parts of that place as it was large and I was so tired. I entered to a dark room; I could see its shiny eyes, my pussy cat lying on the bed waiting for me. Now it is time to make love after all with the sexiest creature in the world to get some refreshment. I know it is jealous of Dad so I would never say anything about him to it although the poor cat didn't know what happened to my Dad yet. I started to lick its hairy soft head and its closed eyes.

As days passed by we decided to explore the area which we found because we had no idea where we entered yet. Since before we just stayed at home and we did nothing special instead of having sex together and sleeping. Nevertheless it got boring for both of us after some days and it caused us finally to go out. When we walked around the house we smelled a really intense smell of stench. It was very annoying; however we wanted to discover where it came from. So we followed it. When we got nearer we found a big shelter of pigs. There were more than fifty pigs which circulated between each other in depth of shits so as we wanted to enter there I embraced the cat in my arms and I went in, the shit came up till my knees and walking around those pigs wasn't so easy. As usual the bad smell didn't bother me. I always like mixed smells of shit and fresh air. When I was in Mom's house I enjoyed smelling my tissue after cleaning up my ass and pussy in the toilet I always smell the tissue or the juices on my shorts deeply as I smell a nice flower and it gives me the best feeling of breathing. The nicest smell for me were the bloody pads which I used for my period and I remember that Dad also liked it too much and as he said the most joyful time for him to make love with me was when I got my period. And I also loved sucking his dick just after putting it in my bloody pussy or in my ass then I would suck it deeply with that seductive smell. Anyhow here again were nice smells and lots of little fat pigs of which some were eating shit and some had sex. By seeing this I pressed the cat tightly in my arms as all of those were very luscious. With the other hand I kept my cunt tightly.

Nonetheless I didn't want to come at this moment since I was really enjoying watching them and being there and such a punishment didn't let me get free of this libido. After a while we went out of the shelter and just in front of the exit we saw a fat woman seated with open legs who was masturbating with a very bad voice that waked me up from a joyful dream. I put the cat on the ground and stared at that woman, she was the ugliest creature whom I ever saw. Her skin was like a frog and the hanged layer of her stomach and buttock touched the ground and she howled like a dog. She stared ahead with her eyes wide open, a shiny white globe inside.

I looked at the cat and said: “I know this woman, her terrified eyes are very familiar to me, I know her from somewhere.”

Cat said: “ha-ha, maybe it just reminds you of that Monster.” Cat always called Mom, Monster, as it doesn’t like her at all. Nonetheless I was sure that I knew this nasty woman, I just couldn’t remember at that time.

After a few minutes as I was drawn in my thoughts to recognize her, I felt something touching my feet, I looked down, she had crawled towards me and was licking my feet with her long white tongue.

Then she looked at me in a poor way and said: “help me, I beg you to help me”.

I looked at the cat confused and said nothing. Then I bended to take her hands to make her stand however I didn’t like to take her dirty hand.

And I said: “why do you ask me to help you. How can I help you? I just met you now and I should say that we are strangers in this land and somehow we are also lost.”

“I know that is why I asked you to help me, I immigrated here a few years ago nonetheless no one wants me now, my people hate me and they threw me out of the tribe, I would do anything you ask, just please give me a shelter.” She said.

As I was still curious to remember her I said “ok just follow us”.

It was getting gloomy and we could see the sunset behind the mountains. I and cat were walking together and within a short distance she was following us.

Cat asked me: “why did you trust her? Why did you let her come to our place, and why didn’t you ask me, hah?!” As usual it talked too much.

I just said: “I know what I am doing, shut up!”

As we got closer Woman asked me: “Do you live in this house?” while she was pointing at it with her finger.

“Yes, we found this place without any hesitation and since no one came to asked us why.”

She said: “because nobody likes to live in this house. It is a sinister house where no one dares to enter. Normally just strangers come to this place and they find it so nice but those people don’t know what would happen to them.”

“So what will happen to us?”

“You will have a poorly life after this just like me, as I entered this land I found this place as a good place to live, at that time I had ran away from my own land as I was threatened to be killed nonetheless as I arrived here I thought that I was the most fortunate person in this world,

I was very unsophisticated". She said this finishing her speech with a deep 'Ah'.

We entered the house; everything was just as we left it. All night I was thinking about her speeches and I thought maybe Cat was right and I shouldn't trust her. As I didn't live anywhere else except in my own land I didn't know what it would be like since in my land every one trusted each other and there were no reasons to lie or cheat.

In the early morning I went to her, she was seated on the bed in front of a window staring outside and she was totally frightened.

I said: "Good morning"

She jumped like a frog and looked at me: "Yes Madam, I would do it yes just don't kill me" she begged in a poor way.

I was about to laugh: "hey this is Me, we met yesterday, don't you remember?"

"Sorry, what can I do for you Madam? I beg you just tell me, you were very kind to me and now I am ready to obey whatever you say."

I sat in an old wooden chair just in front of her bed: "tell me, what you are escaping from?"

"From those, people of this land, first they sounded very kind nonetheless they weren't, 'ah' let me tell the story from the beginning then you may understand what I am talking about. As I arrived here and I tried to explore my surroundings, I found so many women living here, any how they weren't as the women I saw before, they were totally covered by black fabric, there was just a hole in their cunts, I even can't see their eyes clearly. There was no man except of Velvet stone who wasn't a real man. His body was like a man but he didn't have any hands from his shoulders. And he had a big velvet turtle's stone on his back and a real large dick that was always erected. They had a special ceremony which I explored after some days living with them. The women covered me like themselves before I went there. There was a large sandy circle space surrounded by very high trees and all the women stood there hand in hand around the Velvet stone then he at the middle start to slither on his back and as his dick was always long and erected after a while he would come and all his juices would be like a fountain which was sprinkled all over the women's bodies. This made the poor postmenopausal women get pregnant or be cured if they were sick. The point was that all this babies would be girls and still he would be the only man of this land. After a month being there, once when I was in this ceremony my cunt started to bleed when his juices fell in my cunt for the first time. It blooded like a river and it went through his stone in the middle and under the womens feet. It sounded as if it was the first time that they saw blood. All were wondered, and also me, since there was a long time that I didn't get my period anymore and now in this way.

Anyhow suddenly his erected dick fell down and he went unconscious then all the woman attacked me and I felt I was going to die, when I opened my eyes I was in that pigs shelter and there were no people, I was just happy for being alive. I didn't go to find them anymore as I was still afraid of seeing them since I knew that they would kill me this time.

I lost control and I started to knock on her as strong as I could. By shutting and screaming I called her: "Bitch I will kill you, it is the time to be killed with my hands."

I took her by her hair and I threw her to all sides of the room. She wanted to escape from me nonetheless as hard as I took her hair in my claw she couldn't get free. Meanwhile Cat came to the room and tried to stop me but I also asked her to help me kill her. It was wondered what was going on. Anyhow after a while of fighting with that bastard I went to the kitchen to take a knife. That was the first time that I was really sure of killing someone without any regrets. I came to her fast she fell on the floor like a huge piece of fat near the stairs as she saw the knife in my hand she tried to ran away so she pulled her body near to the stairs. All the time Cat was there staring at us.

I went towards her and said: "you don't have any way to escape from being killed by me".

“Just tell me who you are and why? Why do you want to kill me?”, she begged in this low poorly voice. And she was looking at me with her white eyes.

Then I put the knife exactly between her eyes in her forehead with all my power and rage. Her head was towards the stairs and that stab caused her fall. I took a deep breath and went down the stairs bending over her body proudly. I tried to move it with my feet to make sure that she was dead.

Then I looked up to the Cat: “Come on, see how poor she died. I killed her with my own hands finally. Now it is time to go”.

Cat just looked at me, than she came down from upstairs, but I felt that it was afraid of being so close to me.

I embraced it with my arms calmly and whispered to its ear: “Don’t worry my love, you are safe, you are my love.”

We left the place with the corpse at that moment and I was like the one who got free from jail and had a very nice relaxed feeling and cat in my arms was also about to go to sleep. I walked on a road between trees and I was still licking the blood on my hands.

2. We spent some days nearby that house and during those days we were walking and at night we slept somewhere in what looked like a cave but what wasn't really a cave. It was a piece of stone that came out of a little hill in a strange way just like a shelter to keep us from rain and sun. Once at a late night after finishing making love I fell asleep as I was out of energy. It sounded like the cat had still some energy because it started to talk before falling asleep, at that moment I just wanted to make it shut up.

Nevertheless it didn't stop speaking and it explained to me that it saw a strange creature far from us through the window when I was talking with that nasty woman that morning. It continued: "A very big black creature that was very similar to me. Then I went out to see it closer as it said its name was 'Wolf'. I had a few conversations with it and it sounded not to be dangerous then I rapidly came back to call you but you were fighting with that woman and I couldn't explain about it since I was shocked by your act so I forgot about that".

By hearing these words I got very excited to see it soon because at that moment I felt that it might be a sign for us to save us from this land. So I couldn't sleep and I asked cat to go find it.

Nonetheless this time as cat sounded very sleepy, it said: "Hey, it was a few days ago and we may not find it. We don't know where it is now; let's sleep as I am really tired."

3. After a long way we saw two points of light were shining at the end of the road as we got closer we could hear howling getting louder and louder, it sounded like something was calling us. When we finally got very close to it, it stood up and walked ahead of us in a way that we could follow it.

The sun was rising and by day we found ourselves in a strange place where we had never been before. Around us we could see several wolves that we couldn't find out about which ones we followed last night. Anyhow it was such a beautiful wild land where that we discovered. After some days and seeing how wolves sleep together, I felt very exhausted of being there and don't have sex. I was sad of missing the guys of my land and also Dad and getting orgasms. By thinking of these things once I was lying on the ground far from some wolves. I heard someone steps coming to me. Then I opened my eyes and I saw a long hanged tongue surrounded with sharp bright white tooth above my face. Before I could scream of fear it closed my mouth with licking it with its thick rough tongue from bottom to top. I was lying like a corpse on the ground since two other wolves were seated on my hands with their big hips. And two were licking my feet. I wished my cat was there so they couldn't come this close to me. At this time I felt something very thick went into my cunt and I felt a very bad burning pain while I could smell the blood of my body. And I got a very painful orgasm after being fucked by those wolves; red bloody urine came out of my cunt like a fountain.

Bloody ocean

1. I heard waves were coming close to me. I could open my eyes very hard, I didn't have a vivid view around me, and everywhere it was red, as I tried to focus on my environment I found myself lying on the shore nearby a wild bloody ocean. I saw a very height stone statue of a penis on the shore far from me. It was very sexy nevertheless I couldn't think about having sex at this moment.

The cat had lied on my stomach; it putted its big hips on me. It told me that it was worried about me and it thought that I died that day when it left me alone with those wolves.

Then it said: "I saw a very huge cat on the bloody ocean with a very masculine face and two little bright eyes on it that were staring at my breasts. Suddenly it pulled me towards it. It took all my body with its long and strong legs then I saw that several octopus' legs surrounded my body since I couldn't move, Octopus-cat touched me and embraced me tightly as I couldn't breathe then it swallowed me suddenly. I went through its wet bloody throat. I was totally wet, nice smells of his inside body covered whole of my body, then by a severe flooding I passed some narrow tunnels then I exited its body, but before I understood what happened to me Octopus-cat repeated it more and more since I felt a strong delight inside myself. I can't explain how it was exactly. Some golden liquid came out of my breasts and cunt and I felt unconscious. When I opened my eyes the Octopus-cat wasn't there and I found myself in your arms. It had gone nevertheless I will go find the octopus-cat once more, the reason being that I really want to be eaten by it again and again.”

The cat asked me twice: “Do you want to be eaten too?”

And I said nothing I could hear what it said but I wasn't able to answer. This time it really thought that I was dead. The cat licked me all over with its rough tongue. I saw its green eyes got wet when it left me. I was still confused by that horrible orgasm and I couldn't focus on the events that were happening around me. The cat had left me to follow its dream. I believe that it is just our nature that we want to gain the things which we like and enjoy more and more and we would never feel that it would be enough at a certain moment. Anyhow life had shown me another face, first I lost Dad and I left the woman who was always the kindest, sexiest, strongest to me, then I killed that fat ugly woman and had been raped by those wolves and got that weird orgasm, at last the cat left me for a wish. At first I thought all this would annoy me forever nonetheless even remembering all these things make me have joy and don't want me to get awake from my sweet dream.

2. In my entire life I was always a narcissistic girl and that made me be proud of my ego. In the past I was with a guy who was a foreigner in my land, 1873, his name was.

Whenever he was with me and he didn't obey my desires I would stop him and say: "hey bastard slave, can't you fuck me in a right way? You are better to be fucked by some dirty pigs."

And this made him beg me to let him put his dick in my cunt after licking my feet and howling like a dog then I would let him fuck. Over time, that made him fall in love with me. Then every night he came to my place and begged to let him enter just for licking my toes. I would say it was such a nice experience that I had in that period of my life. I was younger and I enjoyed guys pray to me like a god.

After passing time I had no news of 1873 till I saw him in the bloody ocean again where I had lied for two or three days on the shore. He got very mature with three long erected penises and some octopus legs on his head. I didn't recognize him at first since he had been totally changed. First I saw a huge shadow of an existence under the bloody ocean between high waves and I was so scared and it made me get up after those days of dreaming and enjoying of my last orgasm.

On the way under the ocean when I was trying to find 1873 I saw some fat golden Cock-fishes which were following a little Pussy-fish. There were also some short fat and incredibly ugly guys who sounded like they had no sex for a long time seated on some stones with their little cocks in their hands without doing anything they gazed at a certain point in front of them.

It was very weird I could breathe and walk normally in the depths of the ocean which was like a dream. I never knew that I had this ability before. I walked for few hours among those fishes and guys and also some pink flowers which were like beautiful opened cunts and they were hunting the golden cock-fishes.

“Hey, finally I found you, I was looking for you”, I said to 1873.

“Good” he said and he went on with his work, he was sucking some juices of the girl’s cunts that had made love with each other under his feet by his octopus legs. Those girls had very sexy and slim bodies and one of them was very similar to Mine with her long orange hair.

Anyhow I asked him again: “sorry Sir, I would like to be fucked by you, I didn’t get an orgasm for some days and now I feel that I do really need to get some energy to survive.”

I called him ‘Sir’ since this time I felt he is not the guy who was coming to me and begged me in a poorly way. Now he was very strong, masculine with three gorgeous cocks and a crown of octopus legs. I was always looking for this kind of guys. The only man who gave this sense to me before was 'Dad'.

He looked at my body from the bottom to the top very slowly with his dark brown eyes. And he smiled and the left corner of his lips came up a little bit and I couldn't see his bright tooth. It sounded like he smiled at what I asked. I knew how I made myself smite to ask a guy to fuck me, especially from this guy 1873.

Nevertheless this time I couldn't really stop my desire. I already have his middle dick in my mouth in a way which made my cheeks touch the other dicks beside of it. And I felt his six balls shaking down of my chin. I imagined when he put one in my pussy, one in the rear, and one would touch the top of my cunt which is really sensitive. He had a good combination of dicks since the side ones were longer than the middle.

That was a shame when I saw all this in my dream for a moment and I woke up when he said to me in a low voice in my ear: "Sorry".

I looked up at his wet eyes he changed to a weak guy when he said 'sorry' in a low voice. His face got totally white with red cheeks such as a person who has fever and his three long erected penises hanged down all of a sudden.

He continued: "I cannot have sex with you I should explain something to you."

But before he said this I had my fingers on my cunt as I was very horny and angry of what he said so I had started to get an orgasm by masturbating. I had closed my eyes and was seated under his feet between those girls who were making love together. I was rubbing my cunt so wildly that my nails cut some part of it and just after a few minutes I came squirting while pissing and all over my cunt was bloody. I felt better after coming and opened my eyes I saw 1873 was seated in front of me and it seemed like he was looking at me when I was masturbating. I saw some of my juices on his legs and on his hanged penises in between.

I breathed deeply and I said to him: "Now you can explain."

He said: "The time when I was with you I really loved you and that is why whatever you told me I just obeyed and I couldn't stand when I saw you with someone else. Whenever I was with you, after finishing sex you talked about the girl with orange hair and how you loved her and how you enjoyed making love with her. Every time that you talked about her just after our sex I got very jealous. A night when I was so angry of all of these conversations I saw her from behind in the street she was walking with a tight short black dress and her long orange hair was shining under the moonlight. She walked very sexy with her shiny silver high heels. I went slowly to her and I took her mouth with my left hand so she couldn't scream and pulled her hair with the other hand. She tried to release herself of my hands but she couldn't.

I whispered in her ears: "Don't move Mine, I just want to have sex."

Then she stopped moving and turned her head back and looked in my eyes, we stared at each other eyes for a few moments without saying anything. It sounded like she looked at me to know if she recognized me or not but I knew that she wouldn't as she never saw me before.

Suddenly I broke this silence by hitting her as strong as I could such a crazy guy I hit her on her skinny and weak body she screamed but no one was there. Then I threw her on the floor. Her head hit a little stone which was on the ground nevertheless the sound of this hit was quite loud like an explosion. I opened my eyes, she was there on the ground with her bloody head so I wasn't asleep and all those things were real. She was looking at me with her wide shiny blue eyes.

Then she asked me slowly: "who are you?"

"Who I am, who I am, and who I really was?" he said to me

While he was talking I crawled towards him and seated between his legs I bolstered on his stomach then I put my head on his breasts so as he breathed deeply I moved forward and backward, I felt him with all my body. He started to play with my hair and stroked it. I couldn't believe that the one who was a slave for me has become that much romantic. There was a silence for a while as he asked who he was. I felt that he was confused by this question and he didn't know himself. He was about to cry, me too. I remembered all those days with Mine and Dad. It was the best period of my life till now. It was a shame that I've never told Mine how I felt about her and I've never said how much I loved her.

He continued: "I didn't tell her who I am, I just asked her to explain about you and herself when you had sex while she lied on the ground with her bloody face and I still had my feet on her breasts, she couldn't talk because she even breathed hard."

All these things were like a movie but I didn't feel hurt, I would never get hurt by these things since as Mom told me before there is no love and everything that people say about love is just from the ecstasy of joy and pain. I was tired of this story although it was sad and was all about my past and who were my beloved ones. I was touching the ground with my hands, my fingers felt the sand and sometimes some little existences passed through them. Till I found a little rough stone, I rubbed it on my leg from top to bottom and the other way round. I rubbed and rubbed till I felt pain and it started to get red and blooded.

That night I slept in his arms, I left him in the early morning as he was still asleep. On the way I didn't feel good somehow I was sick and I puked for several times, I smelt the annoying aroma of that bloody ocean which made me puke.

I had a severe fever so I couldn't walk anymore. All my body was numb. I lied and I could rarely open my eyes. I remembered all of my childhood memories till now. I remembered the period when I was going to school. It wasn't exactly a school; it was a place like hell where all the children of my land went from age 6 to 14. It was a boarding school where they taught us religious lessons. They always talked about a God who was so big and we all would go to see him after death. They said that He would never have sex and his place is full of women who are in his order and they just obey him. Women who are very beautiful and who have the most and the best sex in their land before their death they will meet God after their death. When I was in school I always wished to be able to see Him and I made love with Him in my dreams as it was forbidden and as they said it was a big sin. In that school we had a nasty fat principal who hated me. She was like a big dirty pig with spare white short hair and very light and big green eyes, she had a moustache, her skin was like a frog rough and wrinkled. The first session in which she was explaining things about God I started to draw them in my notebook. I draw a very good looking man with 3penises and the principal was sucking one of his dicks and I drew myself on top of them while I was peeing on both. Then she came to me and pulled the notebook out off my hands and shouted at me why I didn't care about her speeches then she saw my drawing nevertheless she couldn't find any special thing as my drawing was too bad and it was like sketching three spots of lines without specifying the forms. Nonetheless I myself could recognize both of them very well. Anyhow she got angrier as she couldn't find out what it was about. After that I had to stand in the corner of the class room when we had the lessons with her so I would get so tired and weak like I felt at the time I was lying in the depth of the bloody ocean. All I did during these years was masturbating when they turned the lights off in the dorm I would go to the toilet and then I sat on the dirty cold tiled floor and start to imagine having sex with God and rubbing my cunt I would never dare to go inside with my fingers as I was still a virgin, Mine was always there with me and God. She first licked my breast then she bit the nipples as hard as she could and I was with God. I had this dream every night till I got an orgasm and I wouldn't stop rubbing my cunt during that orgasm till it squirted juices wile peeing on the floor and I felt asleep just over there. I loved that smell of shit and pee mixed by humid.

3. I was still on that ocean after a month of being sick I felt better, I passed all the days with dreaming and I didn't move a lot such as an idol. Just when I was hungry I would hunt some of those golden pussy-fishes which wasn't easy in the initial days, by passing time I could learn how to hunt them easily. first I was running after them which was hard work and most of the times I couldn't get them till once while I was masturbating some cock-fishes came to me and got stuck on the juices of my cunt. Like they were in ecstasy I could catch them easily off my cunt nevertheless the taste of them wasn't as delicious as pussy-fishes so I had to think how I could also get them easily. Once after biting on some cock-fishes I rubbed their green blood on my breasts, it has a nice smell which caused the pussy-fishes come to my breasts and they started to lick my nipples actually it was a really nice feeling that I enjoyed however I had to eat them. After that I preferred to just eat pussy-fishes since more than making me full they gave me pleasure so I just used cock-fishes as bait. It is strange as I was in my own land I would never get hungry and no one eats in my land, the sex would be the food, some people just smoked, it was said it would reduce libido nevertheless I think I was the only person who smoked a lot and still has the highest libido just like Mom, Dad didn't smoke but he loved it when I inhaled deeply in front of him and I kept the narrow cigarette in my lips with deep red lipstick and held the smoke in my throat for a while then I looked in his eyes and blew it out suddenly, also sometime I kept the smoke in my mouth and while I was kissing his lips I pushed it into his mouth. But here in the deep of this ocean I had this feeling of hungriness which I only had before when I needed to have sex.

Anyway this is a strange land as everything is completely different from my own land that made me feel confused sometimes by looking around and seeing what was happening to me. Every day I got hungrier and my stomach got bigger and bigger I didn't have the feeling of making sex and getting an orgasm it reduced every day and I could feel it with my entire inside. Actually I even didn't see those existences of this ocean having sex also. As my stomach got fatter I couldn't even touch my cunt with my fingers to masturbate as I didn't want to accept getting an orgasm for a long time and that is why I just wanted to force myself to do it since 1873 also refused me.

Once I was seated on a stone I tried hard to rub my cunt and think about my sexy dreams nevertheless just the top of my middle finger of my right hand could touch the skin of my cunt which had no sense so I got angry of myself and I shouted and I cried like crazy and said: "Damn it, damn it, I want it now!! You should do it now."

While I was shouting and crying I beat myself with some rough stones as hard as I could I beat and hit just feeling pain, a deep pain inside, I hit on my stomach for several times and I shouted: “I hate you, I hate you, I don’t want you, just let me come!”

I had my eyes wide shut and I wasn’t absolutely aware of what I was doing. But after a while I just got exhausted and I released those stones and started to rub my hands on my legs and stomach. They were totally wet of bleeding and my soft skin became so rough. As I was rubbing and breathing deeply I felt it. I felt it, the damn feeling of an orgasm. It came with a loud scream and I fell down and I grabbed the sand with my fingers.

4. The cat was seated on my knees on the couch, she was silent and I was stroking her back, she didn’t speak, I took her left hand to touch its balloons on its claw as usual then I felt it isn’t as usual, I looked at her claw, it got swollen and red, I could see some balloons were about bursting and I could see its blood vessels easily, it was so frightful and sounded very painful as I wanted to touch it softly with my finger the cat would take its hand off. I was so sad and afraid, I wanted to shout nevertheless I couldn't, I opened my mouth to scream but I didn't have any voice to come out, I was seeing cat's eyes looking at me. I tried to ask, I tried to scream, I tried to say: "Help".

While I was suffering of lack of voice and feeling helpless, I opened my eyes and I found myself lying in the deep of the ocean alone, I looked around to find the cat. It wasn't there, it was all in my dream then I started to cry. This time I felt so deeply sad I missed it and I felt so lonely without her, in between I got worried about her, I shouldn't have let her go. I am like a stupid girl, how could I let her go alone when she asked me, if Octopus cat ate her what would I do?

Cat was the only one who was always with me and it would never leave me alone, she cared about me even when I killed that bastard she didn't leave me. Now I should find it. I got up and looked around, as it said it should be with Octopus cat now, So I tried to go back the way that I came, I walked through the ocean, I was so lazy to walk and I got tired very soon so I would sit every few minutes to have a rest before again going on, I lost my appetite since I passed so many fat pussy-fishes nevertheless I wasn't into hunting them. I looked at my body, my stomach got bigger and all over my body was scratched, I didn't like myself as before. I got exhausted of this damn ocean. Living in water isn't my type. As initial days were interesting for me to explore everything but by days passing I felt that I really want to come back to my past life. I missed the wind blowing through my black hair and now it grew so long that I even cannot take my hand through it as it's wet and sticky. Any how I just wish to find cat sooner to go out of this hell together.

As I was thinking I saw a man coming close to me. He came closer; he wasn't a normal man as every other thing in this ocean. He had some high antlers on his head and wore blue jeans.

He came close to me and brought his hand to me to shake then in a very nice voice he said: "Hi lady, you look so tired, do you need something?"

I looked up at him as I was still seated; he had a shiny soft brown skin and looked so nice in his blue jeans. I said: "Hi, thanks, I am looking for my pussy cat, it got lost in this ocean and I am afraid of it to be eaten by octopus cat as it fell in love with octopus cat, have you ever seen it?"

He smiled and said: "Which one your pussy cat or octopus cat?"

"My pussy cat but do you know octopus cat?"

"Yes of course, I know the octopus cat but no one knows where it lives since it just comes once a year to this ocean, normally before it comes there starts a horrible storm then it comes out of under the ground from the very depths of the ocean, so it may now be under your feet” he smiled again.

I wondered about his speeches so I didn’t say anything.

“My name is Kiss and may I know who I am talking with Madam?”

“Me”. I stood up to go for Cat.

He said: “Well it seems that you want to go, I can also join you for a while if you like, maybe I can help you to find your cat or maybe not.” He smiled.

“Yes, you can.”

We were walking through the water and both didn’t talk nevertheless after a while I looked at him and said: “Hey, Kiss, why is it your name is ‘Kiss’?”

He bended a little bit and brought his lips so close to my forehead but before he could stuck his lips on it, I put my head back not that I didn’t want him to kiss me but for that I felt a fever, it was as tense as I felt it would burn if he kissed it so it was just like an unconscious reaction on that.

“See, I cannot kiss anyone, no one would let me to do that” he smiled.

“But why? Where does this fever come from?”

“I don’t know exactly but I know the reason of my name, I was born in a land of women, all the people over there were women and there was a guy who controlled them and made them pregnant, his name was ‘Velvet Stone’. Once my mother fell in love with Velvet Stone nevertheless it was so strange and somehow forbidden to fall in love in that place.

So she suffered a lot by hiding this, anyway as Velvet Stone understood her feelings he called my mother one night and said to her: “I am aware of every little thing that happens in my land and that is why I could control everything till now, nonetheless you fell in love with me just like so many women before you, and do you know what happened to them?”

As my mother said to me Velvet Stone has killed all the women who didn’t obey him till that time but he said to her that I will let you be alive and suffer for your whole life to become an example for others. Then he gave a fire kiss on her forehead and let her go.

After a while my mother got pregnant, and gave birth to me. Nonetheless it was the first time that a woman gave birth to a baby boy. So she was so scared since she knew that if he understood he wouldn’t let her child be alive. As in this case I would be his antagonist. As they said

Velvet Stone had an eternal life and he would never die. Anyway my mother tried to bring me up as a girl and she always tried to keep me hidden from Velvet Stone. So as I remember she would always cover me with girlish clothes and when I got older she tightened my dick with a fabric rope so tight that they couldn't see the lump of my dick. Life would get harder every day for us. Till I got mature and she had to show me to Velvet Stone to participate in the ceremony that they had. And in this case she had to show my pussy and cover all my body with black fabric. This time there was no way to escape because as he would understand he wouldn't let me be alive.

One night my mother brought me to the shore of this Bloody Ocean and said to me: "I prefer to kill you with my own hands instead of letting him to do that. Please forgive me my son. You came as a sin to this world, and I shouldn't have fallen in love with that cruelty, now it's too late."

Then she tightened my hands with a rope so tightly and she hung all the girlish clothes that she made for me till that time on this rope.

She said to me: "I hope to see you once again but I know that it will never happen as I am going to kill my own son. Remember son there is no love in this world and it is just a big sin that will perish your life."

Till that time I couldn't talk. I was a dumb boy. She dropped me into the water.

Kiss looked at me and said: "Oh you look so tired, I talked too much, as I got able to speak I feel I just love to find someone to hear my speeches."

I smiled.

5. In day three we were still walking and looking for Cat in the depths of the bloody ocean which got to red purple because of the sunset above it, we couldn't see the sun in the ocean but since the color of the ocean changed we recognized days and nights, suddenly Kiss fell down on the ground as his feet hit something like a ball or a stone.

"Hey, are you blind?" A head with a very high-toned voice said that.

So Kiss had hit that head on the ground and that caused his fall. We both wondered when we heard the voice and saw the head.

“What are you looking at? Don’t you want to apologize?”
Head said.

We both looked at it then I said: “Hey, I am Me.”

“I am Kiss, Sorry I didn’t see you.”

“Of course because you were talking about Octopus-cat and Cat, I heard that since three days ago that you were on the way to here.”

We sat in front of it, it was so cute, and it had more than ten eyes on its face and had a mouth with two big ears which were like cones.

“So you already know everything about us” I said.

It looked at me with its eyes directly on my eyes then said: “Not everything but almost everything. I know that you are looking for octopus cat because of Cat. But are you sure that you want to be with Cat again or do you know that it wants the same.”

“Well, I am not sure. I mean I am sure about myself but I should find it and see it once again to ask her if it wants to be with me or not.” I said with some pauses.

“I can help you find Cat but you should know that it is not easy to take back Cat since it did it with lots of cats.

Octopus cat always gives a high pleasure to them which they will be addicted to. To get that delight they themselves would go to be eaten by Octopus-cat. And it is how Octopus-cat lives for more than a thousand years.” Head said.

“But didn’t anyone do anything about it? Why do others let it eat poor cats?” Kiss asked.

“Hey, remember in this ocean no one asks someone else about what they do!” Head addressed Kiss.

“We both came from other lands” I said.

“Once I told you that I know everything so you don’t have to explain about anything.”

“Ok, so just tell me if you can help me or not” I said to Head.

“Of course but you should do something for me?”

“I will”

“I need one of your eyes then I will give you a guy who can bring Cat back.”

Kiss began laughing very loud. When he could stop laughing, he said: "Oh Head, you think we are fools. Hey Me lets go. Oh I apologize again for not seeing you."

Then he continued to laugh and came to me and took my hand to go. When we were leaving I looked at Head's eyes. At the moment I really wanted to go to its face and bring out all its eyes one by one with my claws nonetheless Kiss pulled my hand so tight.

Then I shouted at him "S". Before I finished the stop word something very huge fell in front us like it fell from out of the ocean. It caused lots of dust around so we weren't able to see what happened. It was so shocking like an explosion just in front of us.

"Come back here" Head said to us with its high-toned voice.

When we went to it, it said: "Remember two things, first you have to obey me since you saw me, normally most creatures don't have this chance so you were so lucky."

"Hey listen I am talking to you", it said to me since I was staring at that point where the explosion had happened, I really wanted to know what happened over there.

So it stopped me from looking then continued: "Secondly I am the only one who knows everything so I determine for everyone what to do, it is not your choice, it is mine."

"Well, do you want to say that we are your slaves since we saw you?" Kiss said.

Head said nothing to him then turned towards the explosion and shouted: "Hey Name, come here."

After that I saw a shadow of a guy who stood among the dust. He came towards us. He had two bright green eyes; they were so bright and shiny that I could see it from that far like two big jades. They were as penetrating so we both stared at his eyes and I couldn't see his body very clear.

He came to us, except for his eyes he was like other normal guys in my own land, so there was nothing special to his body that seemed sexy or made me horny.

"This is Name, and Name these are Me and Kiss who need your help." Head said.

"Well, nice to meet you" Name said while he was shaking hands with us.

“Ok, now you can do whatever and go wherever you want but remember come back to me when the sun sets.”

Kiss came to me and said let’s have a walk. Without caring about the stranger who came to us just few minutes ago we left from there. For a few minutes we were both silent and as we went a little further from them Kiss said: “Me, I don’t know about you but you know that I joined you for helping you but now I don’t feel good about that dumb Head and for sure I won’t come back to them since I think they are both dangerous people who you shouldn’t trust. Of course it is your decision but I told you about mine.”

“I think you judge very soon, I don’t have a good feeling about them either but not because they are dangerous but I also think they are just strange, and I really want to believe Head’s speeches since I want to find Cat and I don’t care what could happen to me, nonetheless as you said you can decide for yourself but I would say let’s trust and see what happens since I think if Head was true then it can help you too and maybe you can go back to your mom and your own land again.”

“And if it was a liar we may lose our lives.” Kiss said.

“Damn, you are so pessimistic; I will come back there right now.” I said.

“Good luck.” He said and we both continued our ways but in two opposite ways he went to be far from them and I went back to them although we have enough time till sunset.

“You came back soon girl.” Head said and it was after years that someone called me girl so I started laughing but that wasn’t a normal laugh I laughed so loud and I couldn’t stop.

“Shut the fuck up bitch” Name shouted at me and like I woke up I closed my mouth and got silent.

“Tell me how can I help this bitch then I would leave sooner.” Name said to Head.

“Hey, it sounds you forgot who decides man, since I didn’t call you for a while so you thought that you are free, huh?” Head said to Name and then continued: “I heard what that dumb guy told you when you left but I have to say that he would be free if he doesn’t need help. But I rather know that he will come with sunset.”

When the sun set it called both of us and said: “Name you know what to do so I have to explain a little bit for this girl, it paused for a second and then said: “Or I wouldn’t say anything, reminding you again about not try not obey me. Now you can start Name.”

I was a little bit afraid so I told in a very low voice: “Don’t you want to wait for Kiss as you said he will come.”

“Oh damn, from the very beginning you forgot what I told you, don’t ask just do.”

Name came to me and pushed me down as I fell he sat on my stomach and I couldn’t move a lot then he tightened me with some rope like when they crucified Jesus. Not on a standing wooden cross but lying backwards on the sand. So I was like a cross lied on the ground. He really fastened my hands to two sides so tight to the rocks besides. At that moment I was so shocked I thought that maybe it was better for me to listen to Kiss and never come back.

While I was thinking I woke up by a movement, Kiss jumped on the back of Name then both were on me, he was hitting at Name’s back and said: “Let her get free, get her free.”

Head came so slowly to us as it was exactly beside my head he looked up at them with all of its eyes then said: “Welcome man, we were waiting for you.”

As he said this to Kiss, he looked at it with anger in his eyes and face. Then got his hand back to hit the Head but before his hand hit the head it rolled a little bit so his hand hit the sands and stones beside my head and it got bloody.

“Please Kiss; I am ok now so stop it.” I said to him although I was dying of fear but I could understand that we were trapped and we had no way to get free from them at this special moment.

At this time Name turned back and got Kiss’s neck with his hand and he squeezed it as tight as I saw his face changed to purple with open mouth his hands hanged besides his body. Name was really killing him and I couldn’t do anything and I even didn’t shout for help.

“That is enough Name.” Head said.

Then he took his hand of Kiss’s neck although I thought he was already dead. Name stood up and pulled Kiss from my body then he took him from his horns to make him stand and he fastened his body to a wooden column which was exactly in front of me.

He was tight all over his body to the column but before he fastened the lower part of his body he took off Kiss’s blue jeans then a big dick which was tightened to one of his legs. Name cut the ribbons around his Dick then it hung very loose. Again he continued his work to fasten his body to that column but he let the dick out of the ropes so it was still loose and hanging.

When it got finished Head came toward Kiss exactly in front of my feet and under his feet then he rolled a little bit like all its eyes were looking up at Kiss's face. Then he threw a big amount of spittle up towards Kiss's open mouth. As it attacked his mouth he opened his eyes and took a deep breath.

"You two, It sounds that you forgot what you came for to me and I hate it to remind you every time, you asked me to help and now I am helping you so shut the fuck up and don't say anything." Head said to us so we didn't dare to say anything.

Then it said to Name: "go on"

Name sat on my knees this time and started to rub my pussy with the middle finger of his right hand. While he was rubbing my pussy Kiss was looking at us. I started to whimper. First it was from a little delight that came to me but as he was going on and on it featured with pain and burning. I was screaming and tried to move my body to get free of him but I couldn't as he was rubbing he stared at my eyes with his shiny green eyes. I saw Kiss behind him staring at Name's ass. And like the one who was so horny his hanged dick started to get erected I saw in his face that he was enjoying seeing us in that position. Name was still rubbing my pussy and took his left hand toward his own ass then I guessed he put his finger in it as his face was like a guy who is fucked. I was going to die. I had lots of pain and at the moment I thought that it is the end of my life and I will die so I would never see Cat again. My screams were mixed with Kiss's voice full of pleasure. His dick was totally erected now and it was as long as it came to the top of my face nearby my mouth and the middle part touched Name's head. Whenever I wanted to come he would stop rubbing then again continued it went around more than ten times that he did it to me and I felt he was rubbing my bones under the skin of my vagina. It took a long time and I was begging him to let me come, in between Kiss was yelling so loud. But mine was from pain and his was from joy.

"Now, it is the time" Head said to Name.

Suddenly he stopped and as he stopped I came like a river under Kiss feet and at the same time Kiss came all over me like a waterfall. And I don't remember what happened after that.

I felt that something was licking my face, when I opened my eyes I saw Cat on top of my face. I couldn't believe it came back to me I was still confused lying on the sand. Head was there and Kiss was still tightened but his dick wasn't erected. And Name wasn't there. I saw head over there a little further from me and Kiss.

Then it rolled towards us and said to Cat: “Now you can get Me free of those ropes.”

When it released me I went to Kiss and freed him too. Kiss bended to take his blue jeans but Head said: “Hey you don’t need it anymore; now you are mature and strong enough to go back to your land and control your people just remember when you go there you will continue the Purple-stone ceremony. This time you’re the goddess of that land and your people become more and more men every day.

“But what happened and how can I find my land again?” Kiss said.

“You got power that you didn’t have before and now you’re ready to go back and control them. You got this power when you were watching Name’s hips moving on Me and you finally came just by seeing and that was the power you didn’t have before. About the way back to your land I will just show you the paths then you hopefully find it.

But before you leave remember what you promised me for helping you. I asked one of your eyes and it’s time, Head said.

Before Kiss said anything Head jumped up like a ball towards his face then I just saw a spark and heard Kiss shout. When the head touched the ground it has another eye on his face. That was incredible I couldn't believe how cruel he was. Kiss' face was full of blood and he took it with his hands. I was so afraid since I knew there is no way to escape and I really don't want to lose one of my eyes in this fucking ocean.

I sat on my knees in front of Head and started to beg him not to do that.

"It is not your choice now girl as I told you before." Head said.

He focused and jumped to my face I was scared and peed at that moment and I closed my eyes not to see what that cruel Head will do with me.

I heard it was coming closer to my face, just before it attacked my face Cat jumped and stuck its face on Head's face so they both fell down under my feet, I was shocked about what was going on as it happened so fast.

"Oh, Cat. My Amore." I said and I was crying like a river as I saw Cat totally in blood and Head just got one of its eyes fixed on top of others.

I fell down, when I opened my eyes again I remembered what happened to Cat, I looked around to find Cat then I saw it beside Head a little further away.

Nonetheless I could see them from the back, I jumped and run towards them and I was screaming: “keep away of it, keep away of it”, on the way.

When I was getting closer Cat turned her head to me then I saw a very green light coming from her face to me. I arrived and without caring about Head I bended towards Cat’s face. There were no sign of injury or blood. Her hairy face was shiny and soft as always but instead of one of his eyes there was a shiny Jade, but it was really beautiful and I forgot the cruelty of Head and I wasn’t that angry as I wanted revenge of Head. I was just embarrassed with Cat and hold her smooth body for a while.

Head said: “I told you that you shouldn’t worry I am here only to help you and others.”

“Well Cat, if you are Ok let’s go out of this bloody hell.” I said.

Before we leave let me talk with Head, Cat said: Hey Head, you helped us so much and I am not angry with you at all since you gave me a more beautiful eye that I can see the world better with and more clear and the most important thing you brought me and Me together again.”

Then Cat looked at me and said: “Don’t you want to say anything to Me?”

“Of course you hurt me when you wanted to help me but honestly more than this pain I had delight. You first gave me that pleasure of orgasm with Name which I didn’t have for a long time. Also you brought Cat to Me and I thought I would never find it by myself. So I even think that we owe you now. I know that you don’t need help as you help everyone so is there something else that we could do for you?” I said to Head.

It looked at Me and started to laugh then it said: ‘Hey Me, I know you better than yourself so I know how selfish you are and you have never helped anyone, then now you ask me if you could help me?’ Then it laughed again.

“Of course everything you said about me was true. I even wanted to kill you after taking Cat’s eye but when I saw that Cat was satisfied I did nothing to you.” I said.

Cat said: “Hey Me I love you and I will be with you forever and as you know I do everything with you even if it is needed we kill others. Now I also should say that I am so thankful to you that you didn’t hurt Head since I still have another question after that you are free again to do anything that you want to do with Head, forgive it or kill it, I wouldn't care."

I was in shock looking at Cat and I thought how cruel it is even more than me. Then I said to Head while I was smiling: "Well head it sounds like everything changed now. I was so kind to you wasn't I?"

Head said: "No, I even knew that you would say these things to me and I know that you both want to kill me before you leave since I see it that you both can't forgive anyone who did bad things to you even after years like that poor fat woman that you killed before you came to Bloody ocean. Nonetheless I ask you to think for a moment before you do anything to me, then tell me if I really did such a bad thing to you that caused you to kill me?"

We both looked at each other without saying anything.

Head continued: "Don't think too much because I know that this time you won't kill me. Maybe later in time you do but now I am sure you won't." It laughed.

I got so angry this time that I went to attack that fucking fool Head. I just wanted to knock on the top of its head with my hand with all my power so that it would explode like a shit. I put my hand up to knock it but Cat jumped forward and put my hand down."

I was so angry with Cat; it knew that I would never hurt it that is why it got itself to stop me.

I took a deep breath then I said to Cat: "What's wrong with you, you just said that you would be with me and help me but now you are stopping me of what I like to do."

As I was telling these things to Cat with anger, Head's Laughing stopped my speech.

"Stupid Me, I told you that I knew everything. So don't waste your energy and time." Head continued laughing.

"This time it is Me, so we still need its help." Cat said to me.

"What are you talking about we don't need any help of this bastard anymore." I said to Cat.

"Well I have to explain to you as it sounds you are not as intelligent as you were before, also I think that you forget things to easily even the pleasure of your orgasm just before I came to you a few hours ago."

Then I closed my eyes and took my pussy in my hand tightly and took a deep breath and said "OH, yeah, you are right Cat.” Even thinking about that orgasm made me horny.

“So don’t you want to have that experience again but this time together? Head still can help us.” Cat said to me then looked at Head and said to it: “well this is why we don’t kill you since you will help us again.” Cat smiled.

“Although I knew this before, nonetheless I will help you again. You need Name for the rest of your life and that was why I brought Name at that time to you since I couldn’t help you in another way but I knew that it would be your destiny to find Name again and reunite and pass everything together for rest of your life.”

I was totally confused this time and I was so angry with Head that it knew anything about us and even about our future, who is it?

“I am bored, just tell us where we can find Name then we will leave you and let you breath for rest of your life, ha-ha.” I said to Head.

“There is no need to get yourself tired I will bring him to you as I brought him before. One thing you should know about him is that he doesn’t live in a certain time or place. He can be wherever he wants and whenever he likes. And if you see that he responds when I call him it is for that he owed me as I helped him a few months ago.”

Then it looked at a certain point and again something like an explosion happened and Name came out of it. He seemed so sexy to me this time and I don't know why I said that he has a normal body before. He was so masculine and he had a nice body, and he was just a little bit taller than me.

He stared at me from there and he was pointing at me directly with his hand and then came to me. I wanted to shake hands with him and I thought he brought his hands for that but before we shook hands he shocked me by putting his pointing finger in my pussy and I jumped all of a sudden and said "ah-hhh".
